KEEPING YOUR CHILD SAFE ON THE INTERNET

Tony Loftis, founder of FindYourMissingChild.org, and Internet safety advocate Victoria Kempf will help parents extend their real-world parenting skills to the online environment on Tuesday, January 22, at 7 p.m. Learn how to recognize some of the dangerous behaviors children may engage in online, how to monitor their interactions, and how to talk with your kids to create a safe surfing environment. According to Loftis, the Internet is really a neighborhood, a place where children go to meet friends, hang out, listen to music, and shop. Like any neighborhood, parents should know everyone their child meets. Come to the library that evening to find out how.

E-READER E-VENINGS RETURN

Many people received e-readers over the holidays. Maybe you were one of them! Did you know that Minuteman Library Network makes over 40,000 electronic titles (both e-books and e-audiobooks) available for library lending and you can download these for free to your e-reader, phone, or tablet? Come learn to configure your wireless device (it's not exactly one-click, but it is easy!) or configure and authorize your home computer to sync with your old-school e-reader (only a little bit more difficult). We'll also discuss the upcoming Massachusetts statewide e-book resource sharing service, and lots of other cool free stuff. We're holding three post-holiday workshops on the following Wednesdays: January 2, January 16, and January 30 at 7 p.m. For more information, contact Matt Amory at the library (508-358-2311).

SIMPLE STEPS TO LIFELONG HEALTH

Would you like to achieve your ideal weight? Sail through your day with clarity and limitless energy? Look and feel years younger? You can! By making small adjustments, you can improve your health at any age and feel great. As part of our Great Presenters Series, Caroline Owen Houde will present a program on Tuesday, January 8, at 7:30 p.m. and will share some simple steps that can add life to your years and years to your life. Caroline is a consultant with Arbonne International, a multinational company delivering pure, safe, and beneficial health solutions for more than 30 years. For the past 15 years, Caroline has also maintained a practice as a group fitness instructor.

TOGETHER, FAMILIES AND SCHOOLS CAN MAKE TRANSITION WORK

Monday, January 28 at 7 p.m.

Terri McLaughlin, Coordinator of Transition Projects at The Federation for Children with Special Needs will discuss transition planning. Transition plans create a framework assisting students to be effective self advocates, exploring work and post-secondary options to make their dreams a reality. Being prepared to enter the next phase of learning support is critical for post-secondary success.

POETRY WORKSHOP

The next meetings of the library's Poetry Workshops will be on Wednesdays: January 9 and January 30 at 2 p.m.

ARTS/WAYLAND WINTER EXHIBIT

Members of Arts/Wayland continue their annual Winter Exhibit for January in the Raytheon Room. Images in various media, including photography, will be displayed.

NEEDLEWORK/ HANDWORK GROUP

Our Needlework/Handwork group meets on the first Wednesday of each month from 10-11:30 a.m. in the Raytheon Room where people work on needlework and handwork projects together. For more information, contact Ann Moses at annmoses@verizon.net or 508-358-7113. Dates for the rest of this year are: Feb. 6, Mar. 6, Apr. 3, May 1, and June 5.

LANGUAGE LEARNING APP

Mobile device users can take advantage of the library's Mango Languages subscription and learn languages on the go by using Mango Mobile Library Edition for Android and Apple devices. The app gives access to all the Mango language courses offered through our library. It's available for free from the Mango website.

ACCESS-MY-LIBRARY APP

Android and Apple device users can get free, unlimited access to some of the authoritative Gale periodical and reference resources we subscribe to by downloading the AccessMyLibrary app. It offers content from current magazines, encyclopedias, how-to guides, journals, and much more.

BOOK GROUPS

Our Noontime Book Group will meet on Friday, January 11 and will be discussing The Funeral Party by Lyudmila Ulitskaya. The noontime group is facilitated by Sandy Raymond.

The Evening Book Group, led by Andy Moore, will meet on Monday, January 7, at 7 p.m. and will be discussing The Barbarian Nurseries by Hector Tobar. New members are always welcome at these groups, and the book lists can be found in the "Readers's Corner" section of our website. For more information, call the library at 508-358-2311.

Great Decisions Program

Are you interested in world politics? Do you enjoy discussing current events with a group of people? Participate in the 2013 Great Decisions Program, which will include eight sessions beginning in February. Great Decisions, the centerpiece of the longest-running civic education program in the United States devoted to foreign affairs, empowers readers to discuss global issues shaping U.S. foreign policy and the world. Topics will include The Future of the Euro, Egypt, NATO, Myanmar and Southeast Asia, Intervention, Iran, China in Africa, and Threat Assessment. The first session is Friday, February 1 9:15 to 11:30 a.m. in the Raytheon Room. The topic is The Future of the Euro.

FOYER EXHIBIT By Suzanne McMahon

Suzanne McMahon is a part-time freelance photographer and shoots concert photos for the music website Twangville.com. She also enjoys taking photos on Martha's Vineyard and Cape Cod. She has won a Boston Globe photo contest and has been published in the Washingtonian Magazine and the Takoma Park Gazette in Maryland. Suzanne is a social worker/school adjustment counselor.

Great Presenters Series VERDI'S RIGOLETTO: A GUIDED TOUR with Phil Radoff

Rigoletto is one of Giuseppe Verdi's most popular operas, with memorable arias for baritone (Rigoletto), soprano (his daughter Gilda), and tenor (the amoral Duke), as well as one of the best-loved quartets in the opera repertoire. Phil Radoff will walk us through this Verdi masterpiece in advance of the Metropolitan Opera's new production in high definition at many theaters in Metrowest.

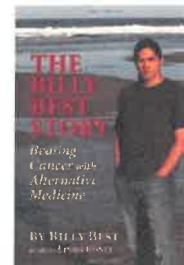

Phil is a retired lawyer with a lifelong interest in opera. He regularly offers opera courses at the Brandeis Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (BOLLI) and gave a well-received talk on Mozart's Don Giovanni at the Wayland and Framingham libraries last year.

Wednesday, February 6
7:30 p.m.
in the Raytheon Room

Author Billy Best on Alternative Cancer Treatment

In 1994 at the age of 16, Billy Best captured the nation's heart when he left home in Norwell, Massachusetts, running away to escape chemotherapy. Thanks to an outpouring of support from the public, Billy began a journey of discovery to find an alternative treatment for his cancer. Billy now works at Whole Foods in Wayland. Join him and co-author Linda Conti as they discuss their new book The Billy Best Story: Beating Cancer with Alternative Medicine.

Tuesday, February 12
7 p.m. in the Raytheon Room

The program starts with Robert Pinsky at the Middle School on March 24 at 4 p.m.

More information will be available soon at waylandlibrary.org.

Classical Archaeology: Uncovering the Greco-Roman World with Frank Smith
A five-week course

Learn about the role that Classical Archaeology plays in unraveling Greco-Roman mythology and how it has illuminated the public and daily life of the Classical world. "Visit" major archaeological sites from the Bronze Age to the late Roman Empire. People from Minoan Knossos to Imperial Rome will invite us into their homes and cities. Class notes and site diagrams will be made available, as will selections from The Mute Stones Speak (Paul McKendrick).

It is recommended that participants read the two following books: The King Must Die (Mary Renault) and Pompeii (Robert Harris) before the first class.

Tuesdays, March 5, 12, 19, 26
and April 2, at 1 p.m.
in the Raytheon Room

AUTHOR GEORGE HARRAR

On Tuesday, February 26, at 7 p.m. Wayland resident George Harrar will be at the library to discuss his latest novel, Reunion at Red Paint Bay, as well as his other work. Harrar holds the unusual distinction of having three novels published within one year for three different audiences: adults, young adults, and middle-grade readers. Also an accomplished short fiction writer, Harrar won the Carson McCullers Prize from Story Magazine for The 5:22, which was then selected for Best American Short Stories, 1999. Harrar lives in Wayland with his wife, Linda, a documentary film producer.

Becoming a Volunteer Tutor of English

Have you ever thought about tutoring someone in English? We always have a waiting list of learners who need help. Program director Ginny Steel is currently enrolling prospective tutors for the five-session course that starts on February 25. The class will meet at the Wayland Library on five consecutive Monday mornings, 9 - 12. No prior knowledge of a foreign language is needed, just an openness to other cultures and the desire to share your knowledge of English. The training is free, although it is necessary to purchase a textbook for about $20. Volunteers will work one-on-one with adults who want to improve their abilities to speak and write English. For more information or to enroll in the tutor-training course, you can phone Ginny Steel at 508-358-7517 or email her at virginia@thesteels.com.

FITTING CAREER DEVELOPMENT INTO YOUR CURRICULUM

A Navigating to Independence Program

Marci Shaffer, M. Sc., Disability Specialist at Northeastern University will discuss career development in the context of the college experience. Students with hidden and apparent disabilities utilize college career services less than peers with no known disability. College disability services offices can help students develop the essential Self-Advocacy and Self-Knowledge skills they will need to create the lives and careers they want for themselves.

diverse background and extensive travel is reflective of the breadth of media and subject matter that she has used to explore and test her talent and expression which is simple and sincere with refreshing undertones of optimism. Suni has worked in most media, but watercolor is the one that challenges and intrigues her the most.

GREAT DECISIONS

Friday, April 19

9:15 AM - 11:30 AM

Myanmar and Southeast Asia

The West has welcomed unprecedented democratic reforms made by Myanmar's government. What challenges must Myanmar overcome before it can fully join the international community? What role can it play in Southeast Asia?

WAYLAND FAVORITE POEM PROJECT

Robert Pinsky exhorted the audience to send in their favorite poem to us via our website. Have you sent us your favorite poem yet? Are you interested in seeing what your neighbors picked as their favorites? Submit your poem through the Wayland Reads section of the library's website. The poem can be anything from a nursery rhyme that your parents sang to you to a classic you learned in school, just as long as it means something to you. The only rule is that you cannot choose a poem you or your family members have written.

WHS Student Art in the Raytheon Room

In honor of Wayland Reads Poetry, Wayland Public School artists will be exhibiting art based on words during April.

LIBRARY BOOK GROUPS

Our Noontime Book Group meets Friday, April 12 to discuss State of Wonder by Ann Patchett. The

Evening

Group will discuss Geoff Dyer's Jeff in Venice, Death in Varanasi on Monday, April 8 at 7 p.m.

POETRY WORKSHOP

The next meetings of the library's Poetry Workshops will be on Thursdays, April 11 and 25, at 2 p.m.

Wayland Public Library

1st POETRY DISCUSSION

Our first poetry discussion will be on Thursday, April 4, from 2-3 p.m. in the library's Raytheon Room. It's a chance to share thoughts about two of our Anchor Poems, "Books" by Billy Collins and "Out at Lanesville" by David Ferry. If time permits, other Anchor Poems may be included. No prior knowledge of poetry is necessary. Wayland Poetry Workshop members Nancy Geiser and Debra Martin will be the group leaders. Copies of the Anchor Poems are available at waylandlibrary.org or in print at the library and will also be available at the discussion.

Katrien Vander Stræten: "ABOUT THOSE (LOCAL) HONEYBEES... AND BEEKEEPERS"

Out of concern for the honeybee, a species that is crucial to our food production but that has seen sharp declines, Kaat Vander Stræten started with one hive in 2010 and now has three hives in her backyard in Wayland. Noticing the interest in bees, she put a small ad in the Town Crier calling all beekeepers and bee enthusiasts. The BEE-lieve group grew quickly, resulting in 5 new "beeks" and 8 new colonies in its first season. The group strives to support new and veteran beekeepers, to regrow the local honeybee population and to raise awareness about the need and the plight of honeybees. Kaat will discuss all these aspects, as well as some lesser-known facts and beliefs about this gentle, hardworking insect.

Tuesday, May 7
7:30 p.m.

COGNITIVE BEHAVIORAL THERAPY (CBT) FOR ADULTS WITH EMOTIONAL HEALTH DISABILITIES

As part of our Navigating the Path to Independence series, on Monday, April 29, at 7 p.m. Daniel Beck, LICSW, (son of Aaron Beck MD, the "father of Cognitive Therapy") will discuss CBT, a tested and effective therapy program for many mental health disorders. Individuals learn specific thinking skills for their emotional health such as identifying distorted thinking patterns and modifying limiting beliefs. The goal is for them to gain a greater measure of control over the emotional aspects of their lives.

Helen Whall's POETRY OF SHAKESPEARE

This year our Shakespeare program will focus on the poetry of Shakespeare: his sonnets and the evolution of his dramatic verse. Dates will be May 14 and 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the Raytheon Room. On May 14 we will discuss Shakespeare in relationship to the explosion of English sonnets in his day and look at the depth of his poetic contribution to the tradition of 14-line poems. On May 21, we will discuss passages from plays early, mid-period, and late to trace how Shakespeare never stopped reinventing the iambic pentameter line or ever stopped exploring how poetic techniques serve drama and drama serves poetry.

talk on the town's GIS system and how residents can use it to interact and manipulate

data to identify features, measure distances, and use map layers to display a variety of geographic features. Learn how to create maps with text, save the maps, and print them out. Decker will show us how to query the system using ownership, address, or parcel ID data to get information on specific properties. The talk will conclude with a discussion of future directions for the town's GIS service, and there will be time for Q&A. Mr. Decker is a certified GIS Professional with a B.S. in analytical cartography from the Ohio State University and 15 years of GIS job experience in both the public and private sectors.

REFERENCE LIBRARIANS: HELPING YOU MAKE SENSE OF IT ALL

Well, maybe not your life. You need another professional for that. But we can help you with that big, unwieldy mess known as the World Wide Web. Reference librarians know those Internet nooks and crannies that you may have missed. We can pull up the website you need, help you separate the wheat from the chaff in a Google search, or direct you to one of our many excellent databases. We'll also help you with that small, unwieldy mess known as an e-reader. We keep up with the changes; we've learned the ropes. And if—incredibly—all you want is just a good book to read, look no further than the reference desk. Because we do find books, too.

NOW PLAYING ON DVD

Barrymore

Christopher Plummer's lauded one-man show about Drew's grandpa.

A Bottle in the Gaza Sea

A young Israeli woman and Gaza man meet through a message.

The Bletchley Circle

Four female codebreakers use their skills to track a killer in post-WWII Britain.

Cloud Atlas

A Common Man

Bombs will explode unless Ben Kingsley's demands are met. Or is there more to it?

Down the Shore

The proprietor (James Gandolfini) of a failing amusement park confronts his dark past.

ID:A

A young woman wakes up in a river in France with no memory, a bag with 2 million Euros, and a scar across her chest. And that's just the opening credits.

Last Stand

Freed from the reins of government, Arnold Schwarzenegger faces off with bad guys.

Lore

At the end of WWII, five German children set out across a devastated country to reach their grandmother in the north.

Mel Brooks: Make a Noise

Movies, TV, records, Broadway; now he finally gets a PBS bio.

Neighboring Sounds

Security and freedom conflict in a posh Brazilian neighborhood.

The Oranges

Hugh Laurie, Oliver Platt, Alison Janney, Catherine Keener and the fallout from an affair in suburban Jersey.

FRIENDS' AWARD GOES TO SAMUEL GOLDBERG

Congratulations to Samuel Goldberg, this year's winner of the Friends of the Wayland Public Library Award. The Friends present this award annually to a graduating Wayland High School senior who has demonstrated intellectual curiosity and a love of literature and reading throughout his or her high school career. The recipient was chosen by the Wayland High School English Department and the award was presented during the Senior Awards Ceremony in June.

Summer Hours

Our summer weekend hours have begun. During the summer we are open on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and closed on Sundays. Weekday hours don't change.

Admit it: You'll never read them again and you could use the space. Donate those old books to the WPL!

LIBRARY LAPTOPS

Want to do some work on the computer but don't want to be tethered to a table? The WPL has four Chromebook notebooks for use here in the library. Just check one out, find a comfortable spot, and check your email, do some word processing or spreadsheets courtesy of Google Docs, or print what you need on our new wireless color printer. The notebooks are small and light enough for any size lap, and they're compatible with your flash drive (in case you want to save something).

What's more, they'll work anywhere in the building. Enjoy the freedom!

Your Smartphone Can Be Your Library Card!

Did you know that you can use your smartphone to check out items at our self-check out station? Just install the CardStar app onto your smartphone as you would any other app. Once your library card number is on your smartphone....you're good to go!

Here's how to install the app:

1. Open CardStar and touch [+] to add a new barcode.
2. Under Select Merchant, touch and expand the Merchant menu.
3. Search for and select Minuteman Library Network.
4. Type in your library card number. Touch the checkmark on the top right.
5. Smartphone library cards cannot be used at the CircDesk.

Please try it out at one of our self check-out machines!

Mon-Wed	9 a.m. - 9 p.m.
Thursday	9 a.m. - 6 p.m.
Friday	9 a.m. - 5 p.m.
Saturday	10 a.m. - 1 p.m.
Sunday	Closed

The Library will be closed on August 31, September 1 and September 2 for Labor Day.

Our regular weekend hours, Saturdays 10-5 and Sundays 2-5, will resume on Saturday, September 7.

Big Move!

On August 8 and 9 we will be moving a lot of books around in the library! When the dust settles, we will have moved some of our more popular non-fiction sections (cooking, home improvement, health, arts & crafts) to the main floor for better browsing by users. We are also bringing some of our Young Adult books upstairs in preparation for the new Teen space on the main level that we will be creating this fall as part of our recently awarded "Serving Tweens and Teens" grant. The library will remain open during the move, and we appreciate your patience during this two-day disruption. Our goal, as always, is to improve service to our patrons.

"MORE THAN HONEY" SCREENING

On August 21, at 7 p.m., the local groups BEElieve and Transition Wayland will screen the documentary film "More Than Honey" in the Raytheon Room.

Upcoming Programs in September

September 16 at 7 p.m. Alan Powers speaks on Giordano Bruno, the philosopher, mathematician, and astronomer.

Tuesday, September 17 at 7 p.m. What to Look For in Our Local Improving Real Estate Market led by Brian Cichella

Thursday, September 19 at 2 p.m. Poetry Workshop

Friday, September 20 at 9:15 a.m. Great Decisions, 2013: Discussion of China in Africa

Tuesday, September 24 at 7 p.m. Local author Tilia Jacobs, a graduate of Oberlin College and the Harvard Divinity School and Harvard Graduate School of Education, will speak about her first novel, Wrong Place, Wrong Time. She has taught writing at all levels, including in two Massachusetts prisons:

Monday, September 30 at 7 p.m. Program with poet Jason Tandon. Jason is the prize-winning author of three published collections of poetry and teaches in the Writing Program at Boston University. He is also the husband of Whitney Tandon, a music teacher in the Wayland Public Schools. He will be reading from his recently published work.

DON'T TOUCH THAT DISC!

Dirt, fingerprints, scratches, and scuffs of almost any severity can prevent a CD or DVD from working properly.

Please hold the disc by the edges only.

When the disc is not in use, please keep it in its case.

Do not let young children handle a disc by themselves.

Please do not try to clean a disc yourself.

We have a really cool machine for that.

With your help, we can greatly reduce disc repair and replacement costs.

LIBRARY LAPTOPS

Want to do some work on the computer but don't want to be tethered to a table? The WPL has four Chromebook notebooks for use here in the library. Just check one out, find a comfortable spot, and check your email, do some word processing or spreadsheets courtesy of Google Docs, or print what you need on our new wireless color printer. The notebooks are small and light enough for any size lap, and they're compatible with your flash drive (in case you want to save something).

Raytheon Room Exhibit Celebrating Creativity by Linda Thompson

The overarching theme of Linda Thompson's exhibit is the exploration of different media, including watercolor and acrylics, collage, needlework, Japanese block prints and weavings – and trust in your own process. For kids and adults, there will be a short multiple-choice quiz about the art and crafts in the exhibits.

The public is invited to an Artist's Reception on Monday, August 5, 6:30-8:00 p.m.

COMING TO DVD THIS MONTH

Amour—Jean-Louis Trintignant and Emmanuelle Riva as a couple negotiating the straits of old age, guided by director Michael Haneke.

Boardwalk Empire: the complete third season—Nucky Thompson (Steve Buscemi) faces new competition from rival bootlegger Gyp Rosetti (Bobby Cannavale).

The Borgias: the final season—Jeremy Irons et al. plot and scheme and connive and conspire and murder and betray. The usual.

Enlightened: the complete second season—Laura Dern continues her loopy crusade to reform her corporate employer.

The Extraordinary Adventures of Adele Sec-Blanc—19th-century Paris, complete with mad scientists, resurrected pterodactyls, kidnap cabals, bumbling gendarmes, mistaken identity, and an intrepid heroine.

Girls: the complete second season—The further cringe-inducing misadventures of twentysomethings in the big city.

The Good Wife: the fourth season: Politics, professional life, family, and love (or the threat of it), in one roiling stew.

The Great Gatsby—F. Scott Fitzgerald and Jay-Z: of course.

Homeland: the complete second season—The lives of Carrie (Clare Danes) and Brody (Damian Lewis) intertwine again when a new terrorist threat emerges.

I Killed My Mother—An exploration of the complex relationship between a divorcee and her teenage son.

Killing Season—John Travolta and Robert DeNiro square off in the Appalachian wilderness.

NCIS: the complete tenth season

Olympus Has Fallen—Disgraced ex-Secret Service agent (Gerard Butler) goes to rescue a President (Morgan Freeman, natch) kidnapped by terrorists.

On the Road—Crazy-headed hipsters on their mad angelic sojourn seeking America's heart down the dark highways.

Once Upon a Time: the complete second season—The curse is broken, but new threats emerge as our world and the fairytale world entwine.

The Place Beyond the Pines—Bradley Cooper and Ryan Gosling in a tale of cops and robbers that unfolds across two generations.

Post Tenebras Lux—An upscale Mexican family moves to the country and of course it all goes to hell.

Rectify: the first season—Exculpated by new DNA evidence, a man returns to his home town after 19 years on Death Row.

The Reluctant Fundamentalist—Success in the U.S. can't keep a young Pakistani from feeling the pull of the past.

Seconds—A middle-aged businessman pursues his illusions in a new life as Rock Hudson.

Sons of Anarchy: season five—Trouble all the time.

The Walking Dead: the complete third season—Give me the gun and get in the truck! Now!

The World Before Her—A documentary about two young women in training, one to be Miss India, the other to be a radical Hindu nationalist.

NASA Helps Giordano Bruno Find New Worlds Monday, September 16 at 7 p.m.

Alan Powers on Giordano Bruno

Sixteenth-century Italian philosopher, friar, mathematician, and astronomer Giordano Bruno was hired by students on a committee at the University of Toulouse, but later sent to the Inquisition by one bad student evaluation in Venice. Kepler said Galileo took the idea of other habitable worlds from Bruno. Why were the education reforms Bruno urged so hazardous to his life? Why was he celebrated by many of the founders of the new Republic of Italy with a statue in Rome (1889), on the place where he was executed?

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN OUR IMPROVING REAL ESTATE MARKET

Tuesday, September 17 at 7 p.m.

Local realtor Brian Cichella will discuss the leading indicators for an improved home selling and buying market.

These include more new home starts, larger inventories of previously owned homes, sold prices closer to asking, fewer days on market, multiple bid situations, and stabilized mortgage rates. The presentation will also examine the reported surge of new home sales and purchase prices vs. actual values in the local market.

Brian is Senior Real Estate Specialist at Coldwell Banker in Wayland.

"SURGICAL MISSION TO HAITI"

Robert C. Eyre, M.D.

Haiti, ravaged by natural disasters, diseases and generations of systemic poverty, is in need of recovery. For the 500,000 residents living in southeastern Haiti, life-saving medical care and surgery are often unavailable. In 2012 and 2013, Dr. Eyre made three trips there to provide surgical care. He will describe the social and healthcare conditions he witnessed and ongoing initiatives to improve access to quality healthcare for the Haitian people.

Bakers Needed for October Book Sale!

The Friends of the Wayland Library are looking for bakers to contribute confections to the fall and spring book sales. Baked goods attract sweet lovers of all ages to the sale and add substantially to the bottom line. Bakers will receive a reminder call the week before the sale. This year's sale will be held on October 25-27. If you're interested in being added to our call list, please contact Anne Heller at (508) 358-4515.

BOOK DONATIONS

If you have books that you are willing to donate, please drop them off in the lower level of the library any time the library is open. Thank you!

eBooks for iPads

Did you know that the Library has e-books to read and e-audiobooks to listen to available for download to your iPad? Bring your own iPad and join us to learn about how to access these resources, or use one of our new lending iPads. We'll focus on "OverDrive Read" which allows you to borrow and read e-books right in your browser, without any additional downloads. These instructions are suitable for other devices as well, but this workshop focus on iPads.

BOOK GROUPS ARE BACK IN OCTOBER

If you have a taste for good fiction (and who doesn't), we have two lively groups for you to join. The daytime group—led by Assistant Director Sandy Raymond—meets at noon on the second Friday each month. Reference Librarian Andy Moore leads evening discussions at 7 p.m. on the first Monday. Each group has its own selections, all of which are available through the Minuteman Library Network. No sign-up, no commitment—drop in whenever you feel like it.

Noontime: Oct. 11 Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe
Daniel Defoe relates the tale of an English sailor marooned on a desert island for nearly three decades. An ordinary man struggling to survive in extraordinary circumstances, Robinson Crusoe wrestles with fate and the nature of God.

Evening: Oct. 7 Girlchild by Tupelo Hassman

Brash, sassy, vulnerable, wise, and terrified, Rory Hendrix struggles with her mother's habit of trusting the wrong men, and the mixed blessing of being too smart for her own good. As she studies the Girl Scout Handbook for help in surviving the Reno trailer park she lives in, she crafts a devastating collage that shows us her world even as she searches for the way out of it.

BECOME AN ESOL TUTOR

Have you ever thought about tutoring someone in English? ESOL program director Ginny Steel is currently enrolling prospective tutors for the five-session course that starts on October 16. The class will meet at the Wayland Library on five consecutive Wednesday evenings, from 6-9 p.m.

Most people who decide to become tutors are thinking of the good it can do by helping others become more proficient in English. But then they discover the satisfaction that comes as progress is made and a relationship develops that enriches both learner and tutor. No prior knowledge of a foreign language is needed, just an openness to other cultures and the desire to share your knowledge of English. The training is free, although it is necessary to purchase a textbook for about $20. For more information or to enroll in the tutor-training course, you can phone Ginny Steel at 508-358-7517 or email her at virginia@thesteels.com.

Documentaries at the Wayland Library

After Words

Tuesday, October 15 7 p.m.

After Words is a 52-minute documentary about aphasia, an acquired communication disorder, often the result of a stroke, head injury, or neurological disease. Aphasia afflicts over a million Americans, yet remains a mysterious and misunderstood condition. The film illuminates the world of aphasia through profiles of people living with the condition. Filmed in Boston, it also features experts in the field of aphasia research and treatment, including neurologist-author Dr. Oliver Saks. Join us on October 15th for a screening of After Words. Cast members from the film, as well as the film's producer, are scheduled to attend.

Legacy of Artist

David Baker

Tuesday, October 22 7 p.m.

Filmmaker Judy Faust presents her new film, See What's Whispered, a documentary about artist David C. Baker of Jackson, New Hampshire. For over fifty years, David Baker enriched Mount Washington Valley's cultural and community life. His enduring influence extended well beyond the Valley to all who encountered him. Until his death from cancer in 1999, David Baker was a dear friend and mentor to many, including Judy Faust, who involved Baker's community in the making of this film. Baker's art will be on exhibit in the library during October.

Wayland Public Library

Great Decisions Threat Assessment October 18 9:15 a.m.

The Wayland Library sponsors a Great Decisions group that meets regularly on selected Friday mornings. New members are welcome to join.

How can the United States address the challenges of a weak economy, homegrown terrorism and nuclear proliferation? What threats and opportunities are presented by the ascendancy of China and by regime change in the Middle East?

eBooks for iPads Thursday, October 24 12-1 p.m.

Did you know that the Library has an ever-growing set of e-books to read and e-audiobooks to listen to available for download? Did you know that you can get those library books on your iPad?

Bring your own iPad—or use one of our new, lending iPads—and join us as we learn how to access these resources. We'll focus on the new "OverDrive Read" product, which allows you to borrow and read e-books right in your web browser, without any additional app downloads or software dependencies.

Though we'll be focusing on iPads, the skills we learn will be 100% transferrable to iPhones, and largely transferrable to other devices as well.

An ordinary man struggling to survive in extraordinary circumstances, Robinson Crusoe wrestles with fate and the nature of God. On November 1, the focus will be on A Reliable Wife by Robert Goolrick. Rural Wisconsin, 1909: When Catherine Land answers Ralph Truitt's ad for "a reliable wife," the two get married. Truitt—a passionate man with dark secrets—has plans for his new wife. But Catherine, who has her own hidden corners, has plans for him as well. Isolated on a remote estate and imprisoned by relentless snow, their story unfolds in unimaginable ways.

Evening: Brash, sassy, vulnerable, wise, and terrified, Rory Hendrix struggles with her mother's habit of trusting the wrong men, and the mixed blessing of being too smart for her own good. We'll discuss her story, in the novel Girlchild by Tupelo Hassman on October 7 in the Raytheon Room. On November 4, we'll be looking at James Kaplan's Two Guys from Verona, in which a former high-school star, now lost in middle age, ropes a reluctant friend into a confrontation with the past that haunts them both.

Raytheon Room Exhibit Maine and its People

This month's exhibit will be the artwork of Molly Beard, who says, "The great outdoors has been my biggest source of inspiration, recreation and solace. Much of what I paint is the long view, which is what my husband and I have in Maine on Swans Island and Mt. Desert....One goal for me is to accept and be creative with what happens unintentionally with the paint and the water."

BECOME AN ESOL TUTOR

King Philip's War Program with Michael Tougias Sunday, November 3 3-5 p.m.

As part of the town's 375th anniversary celebration, author Michael Tougias presents a program on the war between the Colonists and Native Americans in 1675-76. One of the battles of this war took place right here in Wayland! The first part of the presentation will discuss the Indian way of life, Colonial settlements, and the events leading up to the war. The second part covers the battles and the strategy during this cataclysmic war, which on a per-capita basis was the bloodiest conflict in our nation's history. Book signing and questions to follow.

Michael Tougias is the author of the acclaimed Until I Have No Country: a novel of King Philip's War, and co-author with Eric Schultz of King Philip's War: The History and Legacy of America's Forgotten Conflict.

MONKEY HELPERS FOR THE DISABLED With Lynn Trimby and Megan Talbert Tuesday, November 5 7:30 p.m.

For over 33 years Helping Hands: Monkey Helpers for the Disabled has been raising and training capuchin monkeys as service animals to assist people living with paralysis. Using photos, film clips, and anecdotes, this presentation will detail Helping Hands' in-depth training and placement techniques, the incredible effects of the human-animal bond and how the program evolved from an experimental project to a national organization— the only one of its kind in the world.

Lynn Trimby joined the Board of Helping Hands in 2005. She was drawn to the organization after a friend developed mobility issues due to ALS. After a successful career in investment management, she is now Treasurer of Helping Hands, applying her financial skills and experience to the non-profit world. Executive Director Megan Talbert has spent many years bringing Helping Hands' service animals to new recipients and advising clients regarding the care, behavior and health of these special monkeys.

The presentation will discuss the Indian way of life, Colonial settlements, and the events leading up to the conflict, as well as the battles and strategy of this cataclysmic war, which, on a per-capita basis, was the bloodiest in our nation's history. Book signing and questions to follow.

MONKEY HELPERS FOR THE DISABLED with Lynn Trimby and Megan Talbert Tuesday, November 5, 7:30 p.m.

For over 33 years Helping Hands: Monkey Helpers for the Disabled has been raising and training capuchin monkeys as service animals to assist people living with paralysis. Using photos, film clips, and anecdotes, this presentation will detail Helping Hands' in-depth training and placement techniques, the incredible effects of the human-animal bond and how the program evolved from an experimental project to a national organization—the only one of its kind in the world.

TREKKING IN THE HIGH HIMALAYAS OF BHUTAN with James Saltonstall Tuesday, December 3, 7:30 p.m.

Jim will describe a once-in-a-lifetime, ten-day trek he took with a small group in Bhutan in the spring of 2011, camping at 13,500 feet and going over passes above 16,000 feet. The air was clean and clear, the views unforgettable, the people extraordinary. Bring your boots and walking stick (just kidding)!

POETRY WORKSHOP

The next meetings of the library's Poetry Workshops will be on Thursday, November 14, at 2 p.m.

Poetry Workshop with Steven Ratiner Thursday, December 5, at 1:30 p.m.

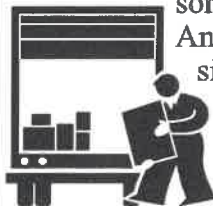

Mr. Ratiner is both a poet and an educator. His longstanding commitment is to expand the way audiences experience poetry and the arts. He has taught more than 300 poetry residencies in schools throughout New England, as well as teaching in a number of colleges. His own writings have been published in the United States and abroad, in numerous journals, two recent poetry chapbooks, and in his book Giving Their Word, a fascinating compilation of interviews of famous poets, including Seamus Heaney, Mary Oliver, and Bei Dao. In addition to his residencies and writings, Steven has collaborated many times with a variety of artists in multi-disciplinary performances that have involved poetry, dance, music, videography, and the visual arts. He has a particular interest in exploring the parallel experiences of poets in ancient Chinese and contemporary American cultures.

INTERLIBRARY LOAN: HOW IT WORKS

You order a book from another library through the catalog and presto! it shows up a few days later. Nothing to it, right? Actually, though it seems like magic, there's a lot of physical labor involved, some of it strenuous, in making that book appear. Every morning, library staff fan out through the stacks armed with a list of requests from other libraries, pulling books, audiobooks, CDs, and DVDs from the shelves. These go into big plastic bins that are then (this is the strenuous part) hauled away by a man in a truck, after he's dropped off a bunch of other bins filled with the requests of Wayland patrons. It's not unusual for him to leave 8 to 12 bins at a time and take away just as many—and they can get really heavy. He drives to a warehouse where the bin contents are sorted by library, re-binned, and put back on the truck. And so it goes, all day, five days a week. When you consider that last year we borrowed more than 25,000 items and lent out more than 38,000, you realize that it's more than magic—it's plain hard work.

NOVEMBER EXHIBITS

During November, the Sudbury Valley Nature Photographers will exhibit their work in the Raytheon Room. The public is cordially invited to an exhibit reception on Saturday, November 2, from 2-4 p.m. Also this month, we welcome back Murray and Trudy Drobnis with their display of framed photographs in the library

LIBRARY BOOK GROUPS FOR ADULTS

The Noontime group will meet on Friday, November 1, to discuss Robert Goolrick's A Reliable Wife. December's selection, for Friday the 6th, is Gather Together in My Name. With characteristic frankness, author Maya Angelou recalls her struggle in the years following WWII to find a place in the world for herself and her young son.

Monday, November 4

at 7 p.m., the Evening group will look at Two Guys from Verona by James Kaplan. For Monday, December 2, at 7 p.m., the selection is Dinaw Mengestu's acclaimed How to Read the Air, in which the adult son of immigrants sets out to trace a family history that will take him from the war-torn Ethiopia of his parents' youth to his life in the America of today.

Both groups meet in the Raytheon Room. New attendees are always welcome and no registration required.

BOOK GROUPS, THIS MONTH AND NEXT

Lots of good reading ahead for both our book groups. On Monday, December 2 at 7:00 p.m., the Evening group will discuss How to Read the Air by Dinaw Mengestu. The book for Monday, January 13 is Kent Wascom's The Blood of Heaven. Set in the unruly southern frontier of the early 1800s, "this highly readable saga is both charming and intense" (Library Journal).

The Noontime group will discuss Maya Angelou's powerful memoir Gather Together in My Name on Friday, December 6. Northanger Abbey, Jane Austen's tale of a young woman receiving intensive instruction in the ways of the world, is on the list for Friday, January 3.

Books for both groups are at the Library. No registration required; just drop in if you feel like it—and we hope you do.
